

The Four Maries

Schottisches Volkslied

Satz: Erwin H V Lackner

1=5 Yest` re`en the Queen had four Ma - rys, the nicht she`ll hae but 2 Oh litt - le did my mother ken the day she cradd-led 3 Oh tie a nap - kin roon my eyen, no let me seen to 4 But I wish I could lie in our ain kirk - yard be - neath yon old oak
5. Strophe = Wh 1. Strophe

three.
me
die
tree (summen)

musicalion klicken für mehr

and
'o
e ad
Ma - ry
tra - vel
my dear strung the

Bea - ton, and Ma - ry Car Mi - chael and me ... in the death I was tae die ... mo - ther, who`s far a - way o` - er the sea ... go - wans, my bro - thers and si - sters and me ...

fower = four, yest`re`en = yester(day)evening,
nicht = night, roon = around, eyene = eyes, ain = own, kirkyard = churchyard, gowans = daisies.

Typ: Digitale Noten zum Download

Titel: The Four Maries

Komponist: Unbekannt Anonymus

Epoche: Volkslieder

Thema: Trauer / Tod

Reihe/Zyklus: Seind so viel Platzlan

Schwierigkeit: Leicht

Instrumentierung Gruppe: Männerchor a cappella

Arrangement: Chor>TTBB

Instrumentierung: Gesang Chor>Bass-Stimmen = B (2), Gesang
Chor>Tenor-Stimmen = T(2)