

Walzer für einen Sommer für Querflöte und Klavier

Herb Weidner

The image displays a musical score for a waltz titled "Walzer für einen Sommer" by Herb Weidner, arranged for Flute (Flöte) and Piano (Klavier). The score is written in 3/4 time and features a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The instrumentation includes Flöte, Violine (Violin), and Klavier (Piano). The score is divided into three systems, each starting with a measure number (1, 6, and 12). A central orange oval watermark with the text "musicalion" and "click for more" is overlaid on the middle system. The Flute part begins with a melodic line in the first system, followed by a more active line in the second system, and a concluding phrase in the third system. The Violin part is mostly silent, with a few notes in the second system. The Piano part provides harmonic support with chords and a steady bass line.

This image displays a musical score for three instruments: Flute (Fl.), Violin (Vl.), and Keyboard (Kl.). The score is organized into three systems, each containing staves for the respective instruments. The first system covers measures 131 to 136, the second system covers measures 137 to 141, and the third system covers measures 142 to 147. The music is written in a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and a common time signature (C). The Flute part features melodic lines with various note values and rests. The Violin part provides harmonic support with sustained notes and some melodic movement. The Keyboard part consists of block chords in the right hand and single notes in the left hand. A large, semi-transparent watermark with the text "musicalion" and "click for more" is overlaid on the middle system of the score.
