The image shows a musical score for the song "The Rose Tree". It consists of two staves, a treble staff and a bass staff, both in the key of D major (indicated by two sharps: F# and C#). The treble staff contains the melody, which is written in a simple, folk-like style. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment, primarily using chords and single notes. The score is divided into two measures by a vertical bar line. The first measure of the treble staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of two sharps. The first measure of the bass staff begins with a bass clef and a key signature of two sharps. The second measure of the treble staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of two sharps. The second measure of the bass staff begins with a bass clef and a key signature of two sharps. The score is labeled with the number "109" in the top left corner.

The image displays a musical score for a piece titled "Presto alla Giga. 9". The score is written for piano and features five systems of music, each consisting of a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 3/4. The measures are numbered 119, 121, 124, 127, and 130. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings like ff (fortissimo). An 8va (octave) marking is present in several systems. A central graphic element, an orange oval with a white border, contains the word "musicalion" in a bold, orange, sans-serif font, with the phrase "klicken für mehr" (click for more) in a smaller, orange, sans-serif font below it. The score concludes with a double bar line and repeat signs in the final system.
