

J. S. Bach
Praeludium Nr. 4 (D-Dur)
aus "Sechs kleine Praeludien"

S-Sax oder
Klarinette

A-Sax

T-Sax

The first system of the musical score is written for three saxophone parts: S-Sax or Clarinet, Alto Sax, and Tenor Sax. The key signature is D major (two sharps) and the time signature is 2/4. The S-Sax part features a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes. The A-Sax part provides a harmonic accompaniment with sustained notes and some movement. The T-Sax part plays a rhythmic pattern of eighth notes.

The second system continues the musical piece. The S-Sax part has a more active role with sixteenth-note passages. The A-Sax part has some rests, while the T-Sax part continues its rhythmic pattern.

The third system of the musical score. A large, semi-transparent watermark with the word "musicalion" in orange and the text "klicken für mehr" below it is centered over the middle of the system. The musical notation continues on either side of the watermark.

The fourth system of the musical score. The S-Sax part features a complex sixteenth-note figure. The A-Sax part has a sustained chord. The T-Sax part continues with eighth notes.

The fifth and final system of the musical score. It concludes with repeat signs and final notes for all three parts.
