Prof. Dr. Eng. Martin Grassnick (Mayence, 5. May 1917 - Baden-Baden, July 2020) taught at the Technical University of Kaiserslautern, of which he was one of the founding members when being established in 1970. Since I did my doctorate with him and maintained a close relationship until his recent passing, he was an important figure in my life, and this is my expression of grieving for him.
