Like all pastorals from Rathgeber, this so-called "percussion aria" belongs to the last and easily executable part "before the Weynacht time" of his opus(culuml) XXIII called "Musikalischer Zeit-Vertreib auf dem Clavier" where the clavier always means a keyboard instrument (organ, harpsichord, clavichord etc.) and the percussion aria means a vocal music played on the keys.

Small notes or suggested performances in brackets are not in the original but were performed in this way or in a similar way by players.
