The musical score for page 10 consists of multiple staves. The top system includes vocal staves with lyrics and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "ab der-sel-ben Stun-de ver - - ließ er al - les, was ihm wert ge-we-sen". The score includes various musical notations such as triplets, slurs, and dynamic markings like f (forte). A large, stylized watermark "musicalion" with the text "click for more" is overlaid on the center of the page. Below the watermark, the lyrics are repeated on additional staves.

The musical score is written for a multi-staff instrument, likely a harpsichord or similar keyboard instrument. It features a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). The score includes various musical notations such as treble and bass clefs, notes, rests, and dynamic markings like mf (mezzo-forte) and f (forte). There are also triplets indicated by a '3' over a bracket. A large, semi-transparent orange watermark with the word 'musicalion' and the text 'click for more' is centered over the middle of the page. Below the watermark, the German lyrics are written in a sans-serif font, aligned with the musical staves. The lyrics are: 'nicht zu wel-chem Bun-de und wuß-te den-noch nicht, und wuß-te den-noch nicht zu wel-chem Bun-de'. The score continues with more musical notation and lyrics below the watermark.

The musical score is written for a choir and piano. It features a large, semi-transparent watermark in the center that reads "musicalion" in orange, with "click for more" in smaller orange text below it. The score is in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The lyrics are in German and are repeated across four systems. The first system shows the beginning of the piece with a treble and bass staff for the piano and four staves for the choir. The second system continues the melody. The third system introduces the lyrics. The fourth system continues the melody and lyrics. The score includes various musical notations such as treble and bass clefs, key signatures, time signatures, and lyrics. There are also some musical symbols like a treble clef and a bass clef that are not part of the main score.

The musical score is for page 68, featuring a vocal melody and a piano accompaniment. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 3/2. The score is divided into two systems. The first system contains measures 1 through 12. The second system contains measures 13 through 24. The vocal part is written in a single staff, and the piano accompaniment is written in two staves (treble and bass clef). The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings (mp, p, f, mf). A central watermark with the text "musicalion" and "click for more" is overlaid on the score.

The musical score for page 76 is presented in a multi-staff format. The top system includes a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The piano part features complex rhythmic patterns with triplets and dynamic markings such as f (forte), mp (mezzo-piano), and p (piano). The score is divided into several measures, with some measures containing rests. A central graphic element, the 'musicalion' logo, is overlaid on the score. The logo consists of a stylized orange oval containing the word 'musicalion' in a bold, sans-serif font, with the text 'click for more' below it. To the right of the logo, there is a section of the score with German lyrics: 'Nacht bis daß es tag-te, dann'. The bottom system of the score continues the musical notation, including a bass line and a piano accompaniment. The overall layout is clean and professional, typical of a music manuscript.
