The image shows a musical score for the song 'Wenn die Flöten'. It consists of three staves of music in treble clef with a common time signature (C). The melody is written on the first staff, and the lyrics are written below it. The second staff continues the melody and includes triplets marked with a '3' and a bracket. The third staff concludes the melody. The lyrics are in German and describe a scene where flutes and violins play, the heart rises, and the mouth wants to sing. The song ends with a double bar line.
