Valse lente

The first system of the musical score is in 3/4 time, marked 'Valse lente'. It features a treble and bass staff for piano accompaniment. The melody is composed of chords and single notes, primarily in the right hand.

The second system of the musical score includes vocal lines. The melody is in the treble staff, and the piano accompaniment is in the bass and treble staves. The lyrics are: "I'm drea - ming dreams, I'm she - ming shemes, I'm blaw - ding cast - les high, _____". A large orange oval with the text "musicalion" and "click for more" is overlaid on the score.

The third system of the musical score continues the vocal and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "they're bom a - new, their days are few, just like a sweet but - ter - fly, _____".

The fourth system of the musical score concludes the piece. The lyrics are: "and as the day - lit is dawn - ing, they come a - gain in the morn - ing."
