The Jamestown Homeward Bound

Forebitter Song

Verse

The farm - er's heart with joy is fill'd when his crops are good and sound, but who can feel the wild de-light of the sail - or home - ward bound? For three long years have passed a - way since we left free - dom's shore; Our long - felt wish has come at last, and we're home ward bound once - more.

T'where the sky's as clear as the mai - den's eye, who longs for our re - turn; To the land where milk an hon - ey flows and lib - er - ty was born. So fill our sails with the favor - ing gales and with ship - mates all a - round, We'll give three cheers for our star - ry flag, and the James - town home - ward bound.
