The image displays a musical score for the hymn 'Der Heiland ist geboren'. It begins with a treble and bass clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a common time signature. The score is divided into three systems. The first system contains four measures. The second system contains four measures, with a large, glowing orange oval in the center. Inside the oval, the word 'musicalion' is written in a bold, orange, sans-serif font, and below it, the text 'click for more' is written in a smaller, orange, sans-serif font. The third system contains four measures. The score is written for a single melodic line, likely for a keyboard instrument.

Under the collective term "Intonations" by Eberhard Arning, you will find preludes and accompaniments to the melodies of the EG main part. The movements are lightly composed and intended primarily for organ students in the early stages of training as well as for substitute organists in Sunday services with little practical experience.
