Choralpräludium zu: "Herr, wie du willst"

(Aus tiefer Not II.)

Karl Wolfrum
(1856 - 1937)
op. 19
(Bearb.)

Getragen

The first system of musical notation is for the beginning of the piece. It features three staves: a treble staff with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C), and two bass staves. The treble staff begins with a forte dynamic marking 'c.f.' and contains a series of eighth and sixteenth notes. The bass staves provide a harmonic accompaniment with longer note values and some grace notes.

The second system of musical notation continues the piece. It also consists of three staves. A large, semi-transparent watermark with the word 'musicalion' in orange and 'click for more' below it is centered over the middle of the system. The musical notation continues with similar rhythmic patterns and harmonic support.

The third system of musical notation concludes the piece. It features the same three-staff layout. The treble staff ends with a repeat sign and a first ending bracket. The bass staves continue with their accompaniment until the final measure. The piece ends with a double bar line.
