3. Whene'er we are commanded to storm the palisades,
Our leaders march with fusees, and we with handgranades,
We throw them from the glacis, about the enemies' ears;
With a tow ...

4. And when the siege is over, we to the town repair,
The townsmen cry, "Hurra, boys, here comes a Grenadier,
Here come the Grenadiers, my boys, who know no doubt or fears!"
With a tow ...

5. Then let us fill a bumper and drink a health to those
Who carry caps and pouches, and wear the loupèd clothes;
May they and their commanders live happy all their years.
With a tow ...
