

The Golden Vanity

Old English

2. And then up started our little cabin boy, Saying "What will you give me if the galley I destroy;

musicalion

click for more

4. The boy bent his breast and he jumped into the sea,
Taking with him an auger from the "Golden Vanity",
And he swam until he came to a Turkish gallilee,
As she lay in the Lowlands low.

5. He bored his auger two holes in a trice, while some were playing cards, and some were playing dice,
And he let the water in, and it dazzles in their eyes,
And he sank them in the Lowlands low.

6. He swam back again to the "Golden Vanity", Saying "Master, take me up, I am drawing in the sea.
For the Turkish ship is sunk, from all peril we are free,
I have sunk her in the Lowlands low.

7. "I'll not take thee up, nor give you of my store,
My daughter you shall not marry, when I come to shore,
I will kill you, I will shoot you, I will send you with the tide,
I will drown you in the Lowlands low."

8. The boy swam around to the starboard side,
Saying "Shipmates, pick me up, I am drowning with the tide", and they laid him on the deck, and then, alas! he died,
And they sank him in the Lowlands low.

Type: Sheet music

Title: The Golden Vanity

Composer: Unknown Anonymus

Period: Folk Music

Theme: .miscellaneous

Series: England

Difficulty: Leicht

Arrangement group: Voice solo

Arrangement: Solo>x

Orchestration: Voice solo>x = undetermined voice range(1)

Old English