

MOON'S LULLABYE

The Moon is wandrin' Through the Night, a Smile upon his Face.
He's Shining through the Foggy clouds and Laughing through the Haze.
He Wishes to all Souls on earth good Night and happy Sleep.
Do you hear his Tender voice, its Softly woven in your Dreams.

Eine klassische Swingballade als Improvisationsvorlage analog einem Jazzstandard im Stil des Realbooks (Melodie, Improvisation über die Harmonieform, Melodie). Ich schrieb das Stück in den Neunziger Jahren und fügte 2013 eine dreistimmige Version hinzu.

Diese war ursprünglich für ein Vokaltrio gedacht, mit einer Leadstimme mit Text plus zwei Hintergrundstimmen auf einem Vokal (ohne Text, auf "a" oder "u" o.ä.). Dies ermöglicht der Leadstimme trotz der starken Eigenständigkeit der Begleitstimmen im Vordergrund zu bleiben, während sie dabei sozusagen "vom Nebel umflossen" wird.

Entsprechend sollte bei instrumentalen Umsetzungen die Leadstimme etwas herausgehoben sein. Sänger, Bläser und Streicher dürften es leichter haben als z.B. Zupfinstrumente, den Charakter der dreistimmigen Version zu verwirklichen.

Vierstimmigkeit kann durch Spielen von Akkordgrundtönen etc durch ein viertes Instrument erreicht werden.

Zur einfacheren Umsetzung in verschiedenen Besetzungen stelle ich die dreistimmige Version in allen 12 Tonarten bereit, sowie die einstimmige Melodieversionen in F, G, und Eb.
