2. Then farewell to my father's house,
 I gang where love invites me;
 The strictest duty this allows,
 When love with honour meets me.
 When Hymen moulds me into ane,
 My Robie's nearer than my kin
 And to refuse him w'

3. When I am in mine ain house,
 True love shall be at hand ay,
 To make me still a prudent spouse,
 And let my man command ay;
 Avoiding iika cause of strife,
 The common best of married life,
 Married of his wife,
