The first system of musical notation features three staves. The top staff, labeled 'canon', is in treble clef and contains a complex melodic line with many sixteenth and thirty-second notes. The middle staff, labeled 'c.quint', is also in treble clef and follows a similar rhythmic pattern but with some chromatic alterations. The bottom staff, labeled 'cf.', is in bass clef and contains a simple harmonic line with long note values.

The second system continues the musical piece. The 'canon' and 'c.quint' staves show more intricate melodic development with various rests and note groupings. The 'cf.' staff continues its harmonic support with sustained notes.

The third system of musical notation is partially obscured by a large, semi-transparent watermark. The watermark consists of the word 'musicalion' in a bold, orange, sans-serif font, with the phrase 'klicken für mehr' (click for more) in a smaller, lighter orange font below it. The watermark is enclosed in a thin orange oval border. The musical notation for the 'canon', 'c.quint', and 'cf.' parts is visible around the edges of the watermark.

The fourth system of musical notation shows the final part of the excerpt. The 'canon' and 'c.quint' staves conclude with a final melodic phrase, while the 'cf.' staff ends with a long, sustained note.
