BASSVS

Yorke Tune

The Lord is both my health and light, shall man make me dis-mayed?

The Lord is both my strength and light, shall man make me dis-mayed?

S. Sith God doth give me strength and might, why should I be a-fraid?

A. Sith God doth give me strength and might, why should I be a-fraid?

T. Sith God doth give me strength and might, why should I be a-fraid?

B. Sith God doth give me strength and might, why should I be a-fraid?

2. While that my foes with all their strength
begin with me to braule:
And think to eat me up at lengt'
themselves have caught the f

3. Though they in camp aga
my heart is not afraid:
In battaile plight, if they will t
I trust in God for aid.

4. One thing of God I do require,
that he will not deny:
For which I pray and will desire,
till he to me apply.

5. That I within his holy place
my life trougout may dwell:
To see the beauty of his face
and view his temple well.

6. In time of dread he shall me hide
within his place most pure:
And keep me secret by his side,
as on a rock most sure.

7. At length I know the Lords good grace

12. My parents both their son forsook
'cast me off at large:
on the Lord himself yet took care and charge.

me o God the way to thee
ne on forth right:
of such as watch for me,
p me if they might.

14. Do not betake me to the will
of them that be my foes:
For they surmise against me still,
false witness to depose.

15. My heart would faint, but that in me
this hope is fixed fast:
The Lord Gods good grace shall I see,
in life that aye shall last.

16. Trust still in God whose whole thou art his will abide thou must:
And he shall ease and strength thy heart,
if thou in him do trust.

The second part.

9. Lord hear the voice of request for which to thee I call:
Have mercy Lord on me oppressed,
and send me help withall.

10. My heart doth knowledge unto thee
I sue to have thy grace:
Then seek my face (saist thou to me)
Lord I will seek thy face.

11. In wrath turn not thy self away,
nor suffer me to slide:
Thou art my help still to this day,
be stil my God and guide.
