In time of troub - le do not hide thy face a - way from me.

In time of troub - le do not hide thy face a - way from me.

In time of troub - le do not hide thy face a - way from me.

In time of troub - le do not hide thy face a - way from me.

3. Incline thine ear to me, make haste to hear me when I call:
For as the smoke doth fade, so do my days consume and fall.

4. And as an hearth my bones my heart is smitten dead:
And withers as the grass, that I forget to eat my bread.

5. By reason of my groaning voice my bones cleave to my skin:
6. As Pelican in wilderness such case now am I in.

And as an Owl in desert is,
lo: I am such a one:

7. I watch and as a sparrow on the house-top am alone.

8. Lo duely in reproachful wise mine enemies do me scorn:
And they that do against me rage, against me they have sworn.

9. Surely with ashes as with bread my hunger I have filled:
And mingled have my drinks with tears that from mine eyes have stilled.

10. Because of my displeasure Lord, thy wrath and thy disdain:
For thou hast lifted me aloft, and cast me down again.

11. The days wherein I pass my life are like the fleeting shade:

And I am withered like the grass, that soon away doth fade.

12. But thou O Lord for ever dost remain in steady place:
And thy remembrance ever doth, abide from race to race.

15. Then shall the heathen people fear the Lord's most holy name:

And all the kings on earth shall dread thy glory and thy fame.

16. Then when the Lord, the mighty God again shall Sion rear:
And then when he most nobly in his glory shall appear.

17. To prayer of the desolate, when he himself shall bend:
when he shall not disdain unto their prayers to attend.

18. This shall be written for the age that after shall succeed:
The people yet uncreated, the Lord's renown shall spread.

19. For he from his high sanctuary hath looked down below:
And out of heaven hath the Lord beheld the earth also.

20. That of the mourning captive he might hear the woeful cry:
And that he might deliver those that damned are to die.

21. That they in Sion may declare the Lord's most holy name:

And in Jerusalem set forth praises of the same.

And when the people of the Land, kingdoms with accord:
be assembled for to do service to the Lord.

The Third part

23. My former force and strength he hath abated in the way:

And shorter he hath cut my days, thus I therefore did say.

24. My God, in midst of all my days, now take me not away:
Thy years endure eternally, from age to age, for aye.

25. Thou the foundation of the earth before all times hast laid:

And Lord the heavens are the work which thine own hands have made.

26. Yea, they shall perish and decay, but thou shalt tarry still:
And they shall all in time wax old, even as a garment will.

27. Thou as a garment shalt them change and changed shall they be:

But thou dost still abide the same, thy years do never flee.

28. The children of thy servants shall continually endure:

And in thy sight their happy seed for ever shall stand sure.
