

Intermezzo am Meer

Hartmut Essig

The musical score for 'Der Hase' is presented on a grand staff with five systems. The instruments are: Panflöte (Pan flute), Schalmei (Shawm), Gitarre (Guitar), Vögel (Bird), Schiffe (Ship), and Brandung (Surf). The Panflöte, Schalmei, and Gitarre parts are in the treble clef, while the Vögel, Schiffe, and Brandung parts are in the bass clef. The Brandung part is the only one with active notation, featuring a series of eighth and quarter notes. The other parts are mostly rests, with some notes in the Schiffe part.

A musical score background with staves for Pan, Sch., Git, Vö., Sch., and Bra. A central orange button with a white border contains the text "musicalion" in a large, bold, orange font, and "click for more" in a smaller, orange font below it. The button has a subtle glow effect. Musical notes are scattered across the staves, with some notes appearing to float around the button.

The musical score is for a piece titled "Der Hirt und das Schaf" (The Shepherd and the Lamb). It is in 2/4 time and consists of 5 measures. The score is written for six parts: Pan, Sch. (Shepherd), Git (Guitar), Vö. (Voices), Sch. (Shepherd), and Bra (Bass). The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and ornaments. The first measure shows the Shepherd singing a melody while the Pan part is silent. The second measure continues the Shepherd's melody. The third measure introduces a guitar part with a triplet of eighth notes. The fourth measure shows the Shepherd singing a melody while the Pan part is silent. The fifth measure shows the Shepherd singing a melody while the Pan part is silent.
